Church Partnership Request / Endorsement

Date: _____

Dear Pastor: _____

Enclosed you will find a Pastoral Endorsement form for a prospective DMI participant from your church, (name) _____ who is exploring an involvement in one of our overseas DMI evangelism campaigns. We would appreciate your candid appraisal of this person's suitability for this evangelism involvement. Thank you for returning the enclosed Pastoral Endorsement form at your earliest convenience.

The DMI evangelism campaigns work in a three way partnership involving (1) a national church, where the campaign is to happen, (2) the sending church which supplies the campaign team members or participants, like your church, (3) the DMI mission facilitating and organizing agency.

The DMI campaigns do door to door, person to person evangelism together with national churches who team up with the North American participants and their team leaders. This approach has seen a large response.

Church Partnership Request:

We are requesting that the local church from where the DMI participants come would partner with us by doing the following:

1. to consider the DMI participant from your church as a short term missionary from your church,
2. to have a public dedication prayer for the candidate before the person leaves on the DMI trip,
3. to provide some financial support as a sending church for this persons DMI mission experiences. Each candidate has to raise their own campaign support.

Thank you for your partnership.

Sincerely,

Phil Harris
DMI Director

DMI Participant Covenant:

Our campaign experiences have indicated the need for a code of conduct that will assist us in our relationship and ministry. The following guidelines are submitted in a spirit of servant hood. Please sign your name to show that you are in agreement with the following covenant statement:

I pledge, to the best of my ability and by the grace of God:

1. To trust the Holy Spirit to make me fruitful as I seek to fulfill the Great Commission.
2. To make prayer a priority, solicit prayer partners and report to them upon return.
3. To model servant hood to co-workers and nationals and build a spirit of unity.
4. To be considerate of the room-mate's time and needs, especially during rest periods.
5. To be a good listener and not monopolize conversation.
6. To respect cultural practices of the host country such as dress, behavior and form of speech.
7. To seek to build positive relationships with national leadership to thus encourage them for good follow-up.
8. To be careful how I communicate information to nationals, offering it as a suggestion in a respectful tone of voice.
9. To respect the chain of regard in the host country relating to family, church and community. In some cultures it is especially important that women do not appear to be overbearing toward local men in leadership.
10. To seek to be an encourager to nationals. This may be their first experience in personal evangelism.
11. To not allow sexual attractions or distractions to jeopardize my personal witness and the ministry of DMI whether that is within or outside of the group.
12. To be flexible regarding arrangements, and accept local conditions, lodging and food graciously.
13. To be willing to give and accept constructive suggestions positively.
14. To be on time for all appointments.
15. To seek permission beforehand if I wish to make personal plans or undertake personal activity.
16. To demonstrate an enthusiastic, positive spirit.
17. To willingly co-operate with persons in leadership, comply with their instructions, and be teachable.
